

Thank a Teacher Art Contest Entry Guide

About the Contest

The Thank a Teacher Art Contest is the yearly kick-off to the statewide Thank a Teacher campaign sponsored by the Virginia Lottery, and in partnership with The Supply Room. Since the contest launched in 2018, we have received nearly 2,000 entries from student artists across the Commonwealth. Each year, three winners received a cash prize, money for their school's art department, and each of their designs was featured on thank-you notes distributed by students, parents and the general public during National Teacher Appreciation Week. We're excited to continue to see students' creativity soar in 2023!
